Info on how to join the fan club

Due to the overwhelming response at both the signing party and the free concert, we have sponsored the setting up of a official fan club.

To join the fan club, you only need to send one thing to the address below. Please enclose (1) soul to cover costs of mailings.

666 Prince of Darknes Ln.
3333 hell, California

Concert Summary

The concert yesterday was a total success. Even after we had finished playing, you all but demanded a encore. So we complied with a performance of a secret song from our album. This song was Natural 20, starring solos from our band members. I can not thank all of you who showed up for the concert enough. Therefore, I am going to ask you to look at your tickets.

The person with ticket #666 has won tickets to our next concert.

CD Summary

Our debut CD, Eternity... Falls falls into the genre of instrumental heavy metal. You can listen to a sample at www.d20.srd/sample, then click on Eternity... Falls. You will be able to listen to samples of all the songs on the album and a full version of Eternity... Falls. (The title track from the album).

Signing Party Summary

Even though I personally was unable to attend the signing party due to a emergency, I heard that it went incredibly well. I thank all of you for being there to celebrate our first CD. As a gift, one of the posters we handed out and signed has a pentagram hidden in the artwork. If you can find that, and send us an email telling us your name and where it is, we will email you a copy of our CD.
